

Valid Foreign Driving License in Japan

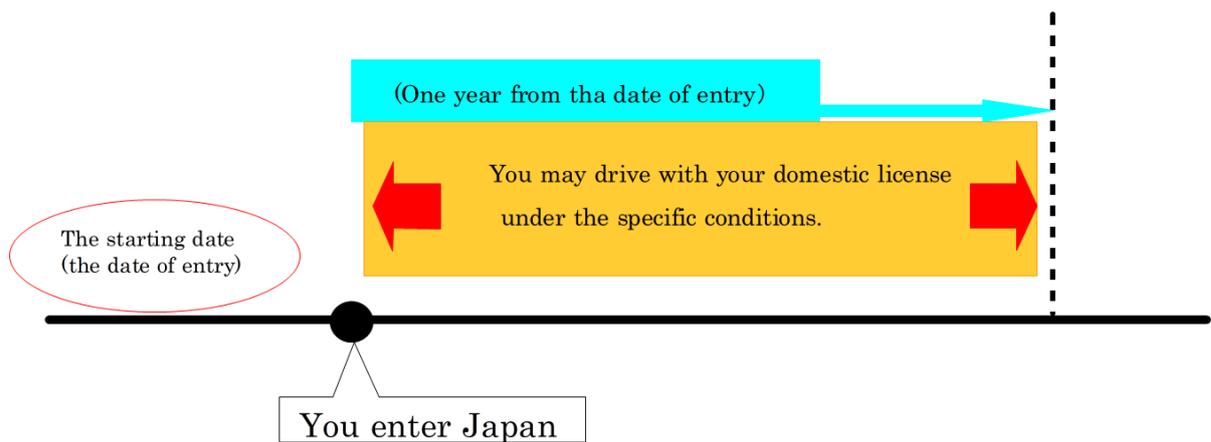

Driving licenses issued by the authorities of Belgium, France, Germany, Monaco, Switzerland, and Taiwan are valid in Japan under the following conditions:

1. Your license is attached to a Japanese translation provided by the authorities that are stipulated by the applicable cabinet order.

The authorities stipulated by the cabinet order are as follows:

- (1) The license-issuing authority, the embassy or consulates of the issuing country in Japan, and so on.
- (2) The Japan Automobile Federation (JAF).
- (3) The Japan-Taiwan Relations Association (for Taiwanese license holders).
- (4) The German Automobile Federation (ADAC) (for German license holders).
- (5) ZIPLUS Co., Ltd.

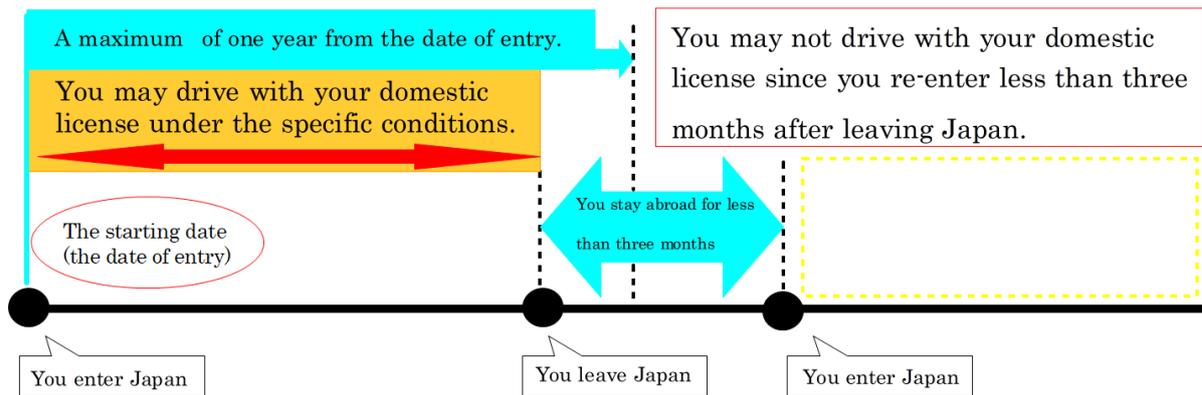

2. It is less than one year since the date of your entry into Japan.

3. You are not violating the so-called “three months rule”, which is stipulated in Article 107-2 of the Road Traffic Act.

◇ If a person, who is registered in the Basic Resident Register (住民基本台帳, Jyumin Kihon Daicho), leaves Japan with a Confirmation of Departure or a Re-entry Permission, and re-enters after staying abroad for less than three consecutive months, the date of re-entry is NOT regarded as the starting date of the period you are allowed to drive with your domestic license.

* The same rule applies to those who travel with a Refugee Travel Document.

◇ If a person, who is registered in the Basic Resident Register (住民基本台帳, Jyumin Kihon Daicho), leaves Japan with a Confirmation of Departure or a Re-entry Permission, and re-enters after staying abroad for three consecutive months or more, the date of re-entry is regarded as the starting date of the period you are allowed to drive with your domestic license.

* The same rule applies to those who travel with a Refugee Travel Document.

